Safety Level: Low

Conditions:

The command receives a report of a duty status and whereabouts unknown incident within the area of operations. The command is conducting current operations. The command establishes communications with subordinate and adjacent units and higher headquarters, and the mission command system is operational and processing information.

Some iterations of this task should be performed in MOPP 4.

Standards:

The staff reacts to a duty status and whereabouts unknown incident. The staff receives the initial report and immediately informs the command, higher headquarters, and the personnel recovery coordination cell. The staff conducts hasty mission analysis, informs all relevant stakeholders, continuously monitors the situation, and updates the common operational picture, all within the allotted time frame. The staff follows commanders guidance and standard operating procedures.

Drill Statements:

WARNING

Proper utilization of the Risk Assessment and unit SOP to lower the risk level.

Safety: In a training environment, leaders must perform a risk assessment in accordance with ATP 5-19, Risk Management. Leaders will complete the current Deliberate Risk Assessment Worksheet in accordance with the TRADOC Safety Officer during the planning and completion of each task and sub-task by assessing mission, enemy, terrain and weather, troops and support available-time available and civil considerations, (METT-TC). Note: During MOPP training, leaders must ensure personnel are monitored for potential heat injury. Local policies and procedures must be followed during times of increased heat category in order to avoid heat related injury. Consider the MOPP work/rest cycles and water replacement guidelines IAW FM 3-11.4, Multiservice Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures for Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical (NBC) Protection, FM 3-11.5, Multiservice Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures for Chemical, Biological, Radiological, and Nuclear Decontamination.

Environment: Environmental protection is not just the law but the right thing to do. It is a continual process and starts with deliberate planning. Always be alert to ways to protect our environment during training and missions. In doing so, you will contribute to the sustainment of our training resources while protecting people and the environment from harmful effects. Refer to the current Environmental Considerations manual and the current GTA Environmental-related Risk Assessment card. Environmental protection is not just the law but the right thing to do.
